Cub Scout Bear Handbook

Synopsis

Boys who are in the third grade or who are 9 years old join a Bear Cub Scout den. Those who join the Bear den without having been a Wolf Cub Scout must earn the Bobcat badge. Then all the Cub Scouts in the den work their way along the trail to earn their Bear badge. Compared to the things that Wolf Cub Scouts do, the trail of the Bear is a little harder. For these older Cub Scouts, the activities for advancement and achievement are more challenging. The Bear Handbook has 24 Bear achievements, 12 of which a Cub Scout must complete to earn his Bear badge. The book also gives instructions for 25 electives, which a Bear Cub Scout may work on to earn Arrow Points. Handbook no. 33451.

It has all the content which is good for looking up specific things. But I don't like this version for the kindle. It's inconvenient to use. Changing the size of the screen or page can really mess up the flow of the pages. Maybe it's a preference thing but I want my page to look like a page in a book. Often a page gets cut in half or cut off in a bad spot. The "background" graphics (at the beginning of each adventure) are not backgrounds, they are separate pictures that are awkwardly inserted after the titles. I would much rather have a .pdf version.

very disappointed that the digital copy does not have actual page numbers. how is our son going to follow along with his troop? i guess it serves me right for trying to save money.

As expected, just what my son needed for his cub scouts. I do prefer the spiral binding for these books, and this is not that version. Also, our pack uses scoutrack.com MUCH easier to navigate!

Bought the book online to save the headache of driving to the scout store. Quality is as expected.

its good to be a scout. even better to have a manual.

As a Den Leader I needed a digitol copy, I had to pay for it in the ebook form then find a converter to create a PDF. VERY POOR BSA...this does not set up scouts for success it Lines yor pockets...NOT IMPRESSED!!!!!!

I bought a spiral and received a spine-backed. Makes it difficult to hold open.Oh well!

Perfect so great to get in mail. Scout store hours not good for me
