Expert authors Robert and Daisy Kunstaetter have travelled extensively throughout the region researching our new edition of Peru, Bolivia & Ecuador. Comprehensive coverage of all the main attractions plus plenty of suggestions for getting off the beaten trackÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Extensive, reliable listings and advice to help you choose the right hostel, restaurant or trekking guideÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â In-depth background section to help you understand the countryâ€™s history, culture, politics and people

Born and raised in Ecuador (Quito and Riobamba), Daisy Isacovici's pet peeve is being mistaken for a gringa. Robert Kunstaetter hails from Montreal, where Daisy attended university. Soon after they met in 1979, he suggested travelling in South America for 'a year or so', and they have yet to turn back. Over the years and miles, Robert and Daisy became regular correspondents for Footprint, contributing to the South American Handbook and other Latin American titles. Based back in Ecuador since 1993, they are authors of Footprint's Ecuador & Galapagos Handbook. They also travel frequently to Peru and Bolivia. After all these years, Robert and Daisy still have difficulty distinguishing between work and play.

Great for planning! Not as practical to take along on the trip (no spanish dictionary, for example), but I loved the quechua history section and lovely, unique photos. Worth the price, for sure.

Got me through a ten week South America trip with great recommendations the whole way. Up to date, accurate. Don't let the warnings of danger scare you off too much though - be smart but don't live in a worried state. Not wandering drunk, exploring unknown areas at night, or with valuables showing, you should be fine.
