God's Love For Us: A Hebrew Teacher Explores The Heart Of God Through The Marriage Relationship

Synopsis

Because God created man in His own image, we automatically think God looks like us with a human body. Yet God is a spirit and a spirit has no human body. The word for image in the Hebrew is tselem, which simply means a resemblance, and this resemblance does not have to be a physical one but could be emotional and mental. By studying these resemblances through God's Word to us, we begin to understand God's heart. Built on the premise that God created the marriage relationship as a model of our relationship with Him, God's Love for Us explores the possibility that being created in the image of God means we were given a heart like God. Through the Biblical understanding of a marriage relationship between a man and woman, we begin to understand how the love, intimacy, caring, nurturing, security and dependency that we find in our natural marriage relationship is meant to help us relate to our salvation and consequential bonding with the God of the universe. Chaim (2016-02-22). God's Love for Us: A Hebrew Teacher Explores the Heart of God through the Marriage Relationship (Kindle Locations 2186-2190). . Kindle Edition.

Ya just gotta read any of Chaim Bentorah's work. He gives pictures of what the original Hebrew meant rather than the limiting of our English language. Most words mean word pictures more than the English word. Easy to read. He uses humor, yet deeper thoughts. Always checking against scripture, of course, but his books take you deeper in your love for God's word & his love affair with us.

This book is deep and well written. It sheds light on so many aspects of life. It has helped to deepen my relationship with God and helps me understand the Bible better. The author is obviously deeply rooted in the Word of God and writes with his heart, mind and soul. Every day I find myself thinking about something I read in it. Easy, enjoyable and interesting read. I have bought some of his other books, and I read his daily blog. Brilliant man with a deeply committed heart for God. V.B. Morton Grove, IL

Scripture says in part: 'that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height - to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.' This is Chaim Bentorah's quest and gift to us as He shares the depth of the Hebrew (from his teaching background) that expresses this love in the heart of a believer. Most of us, and Chaim, have ordinary lives, like Ecclesiastes says, 'time and chance happen to us all', but an extraordinary God who is with us each step of the way. And this is what Chaim imparts to his readers, through his own search, his own walk down many of the streets we each also walk - is that the love of God, his unfathomable mercy, is always embracing us each step of the way. I dare say that the immensity of God's love is so great that we often miss it, but Chaim brings it back to the 'simple'. God is - and He is love - in each our ordinary lives. The bonus - you learn Hebrew thought along the way.

This is a beautiful well written revelation of the love of God - what it is like, how to express God's love and how to experience God's love by looking at the marriage relationship as God intended it to be. I especially loved that this book was written in a devotional format with 31 short but very revelational chapters. Chaim Bentorah opens up the Hebrew language to reveal very practical truths about God's love for us and how we are to respond to Him in love. I highly recommend this for every Christian who desires to go deeper in your relationship with the Lord.

What a wonderful book ! Chaim goes deeply into comparing the marriage relationship to our relationship with God. Hebrew is such a rich language to show how deep God's love is. I learned so much!

.We TRULY NEED TO RESEARCH THE BIBLE FOR OURSELVES...AND NOT take anyones interpretation of the bible as REAL TRUTH....SO MUCH CAN BE LEARNED BY DOING THE HEBREW WORD STUDY..

Anyone who wants to understand the message of God's love should read this book. It will open your eyes to misconception you may have had about God in the Old Testament!

Really enjoyed this Read going to go over again I believe God lead me to this and I am so grateful. I have not understood everything but this I do Now more than ever God loves me
