Rival Dreams (Rival Love Book 3)

Synopsis

Skylar Fletcher and Caleb Morgan have been together for almost two years. On the surface, everything is great. Skylar is kicking major butt in swimming and has been offered the captain's spot. Caleb is the top quarterback in the league. And even though their schedules can be a little hectic at times, they always seem to make time for one another. But once Caleb is approached by the NFL, everything changes. He flakes out on appointments to check out apartments with Skylar and doesn't call her on the nights they're apart. Pro football has been Caleb's dream since forever. But what kind of idiot asks a girl to drop everything so he can follow his dream? And what kind of girl with a bright future ahead of her would even consider something like that? Skylar and Caleb are about to find out. RIVAL DREAMS is the dramatic and heartwarming conclusion to Natalie Decker's RIVAL LOVE series.

Customer Reviews

It was just too much. I was like "talk to each other already!!" How hard is it to communicate with the one you supposedly are in love with?!?

At first I was disappointed. Just tell her the truth! Then I was irate when he broke up with her spewing all those lies. But then it got good. I liked the book. It's been awhile since I read the first two so I don't remember the history in the characters of his friends, but I do remember Lydia and Malcolm. Good story. Clean except for one scene. Couple swear words.

I loved the ending to the story of Skyler and Caleb. I have been rooting for them from the first book and they always have me gripped by their story. It's such an up and down situation and you think they are good and then something always happens and things go so wrong. I have really enjoyed reading this series and I highly recommend it!

ONE WORD "AMAZING"..... loved it. So much romance.... TEEN LOVE..... I would recommend this book to someone who likes teenage romances but I would say 15+

I DNF'ed this book soon after what I called the "typical 2015 YA (secretly a little NA) MC whining" and I just didn't really enjoy this book at all.
