Robert is widely known for his work on behalf of people with disabilities. In 1968 he received a Rosemary Dybwad International Award, enabling him to travel and study attitudes toward people with disabilities throughout Sweden and Denmark. In 1987 he and Martha Perske shared the Healing Community Arts & Letters Award at the United Nations in New York. The Perskes have collaborated on two major reports to U.S. presidents: Mental Retardation: The Leading Edge, for President Carter; and, in cooperation with others, Mental Retardation: Century of Decision, for President Nixon.

Without pity or pathetic descriptions, a story is told of two dynamite kids - neither of whom are able to speak out loud. Mr. Perske portrays his friends with warmth and caring and tells of an adventure endearing for anyone to read. I have a non-verbal son who enjoyed this thoroughly and have recommended it to everyone I come in contact with who knows a disabled teen. Wish he would write another !
