Patti Mollica lives and works with her fellow-artist and jazz musician husband, Mark Hagan, in New York City and Nyack. An impressionistic and contemporary painter, she believes that a painter's job is to show the viewer the inherent beauty of all subjects and scenes. She has been selected by Golden Paints to conduct lectures and facilitate workshops demonstrating "Creative Techniques Using Golden Paints and Mediums." Patti's work can be seen at www.mollicastudio.com and www.newyorkpainter.blogspot.com.

Very good book for the basics, with plenty of photos for illustration. I also purchased her Color Theory book. A lot of good information in both!

It's the next best thing to being in a Patti Mollica workshop. I love her books--get them all and make some breakthroughs in your paintings.

This book is Great for beginners. Goes through materials and supplies that you need if you don't already have. It shows you technique. Plus it has activities that take you through step by step.

Short and to the point. Good tips in all her books. Got me back painting, thanks.

Not comprehensive enough.

Good and delivery was on time
