Coffee Break French 4: Lessons 16-20 - Learn French In Your Coffee Break

Synopsis

Have you always wanted to learn French but don't have the time to dedicate to attending classes or spending hours with books? The Coffee Break French course will help you learn the language where and when it suits you. Based on the popular podcast series, used by millions of learners around the world since 2007, Coffee Break French for the Kindle will help you learn French in easy steps. The series features eighty lessons, and this ebook provides lessons 16-20 of the course. In addition to the comprehensive lesson notes provided, the course features download links for the accompanying audio lessons. Each lesson lasts around 15 minutes and is presented by teacher Mark, working alongside student Anna, so you can learn with Anna and perfect your French. In lessons 16-20 you will learn how to order snacks in caf  s and food in a restaurant and deal with a number of other situations you're likely to experience when travelling. In later lessons you'll learn to cope with a variety of situations encountered while travelling in a French-speaking area, and to recognise the patterns of the language, allowing you to say what you want to say. Please note that this ebook features lesson guides which accompany the free audio lessons. These audio lessons can be downloaded from the Radio Lingua website. Links are provided in the book. It is possible to listen to the audio lessons on your Kindle while reading the text. Details are given in the appendix.

Customer Reviews

The Coffee Break French podcasts are my only current means of learning French. These are basically transcripts to the podcasts with a little extra bit of supporting information. It's convenient to learn French through podcast, but limiting. It helps to understand by looking at the written word.

I decided to learn French after a fantastic holiday there. I picked up Coffee Break French on the first look around. I am an experienced language learner but I had no Romance languages. Coffee Break French is a fantastic way to learn French. The teachers, Mark and Anna, are first class communicators that are very easy to become attached to. Their likeable Scottish accents only add to the experience. The course is very well structured and repetitive and interesting. But and it is a big But, you need the written text to progress. It is very hard to internalise it without some written help. This is where the ebooks in useful bite size chunks that can be bought as required are really helpful. I can recommend it to anyone.

It is basically a transcript of the words for the podcast with notes and a link to download the audio file. Still I think it is good to help learning French. I am a audio and visual learner and I needed to see the words to better understand the language. If buying the bundle for season 1, etc on radio lingua online is too much, this is a great alternative. I want to try the bundle but not for the first beginning series.

This series is a fantastic way to learn French. I love everything about it. Pick up the podcasts on iTunes, and use these digital lessons to follow along.

Coffee break French helps me in a way that no number of private lessons ever did. Love it. Absolutely hooked.
