Customer Reviews

Good historical background and useful practical information. (The Sunday Telegraph)[The author has] combined her keen exploratory, natural history and cultural insight with a wealth of practical information. (Silhouette, Air Seychelles in-flight magazine)A splendid treasure house of practical, historical and geographical information. (Sun International, Mauritius)

Alexandra Richards (www.alexandrarichards.net) grew up in the beautiful English county of Dorset, where she developed a love of rural life, the natural world and outdoor pursuits. She graduated from Durham University in 2000, where she read modern European languages. During her studies she spent a year teaching English in Réunion and took the opportunity to travel in the Mascarenes. Since that time she has been returning to the Mascarenes as often as possible and has written the past five editions of this guidebook. Alex is a freelance travel writer with a passion for photography, natural history and adventure. In 2004, she undertook a writing/photography assignment travelling to Australia on a cargo ship via the Suez Canal, and has divided her time between Dorset and Australia ever since.
