Synopsis

Welcome to the Little family. Sasha, the youngest daughter of famous show jumper Landon Little, and supermodel Siena Kennedy, has a life most people can only dream of. Her brother, Bodhi, spends his time travelling, while her sister, Vivien, is taking the show jumping scene by storm. Together they fly from one luxurious destination to the next, Sasha supporting her sister as she rides some of the toughest tracks in the world, all the while hoping her father's luck will finally come to an end. Living in a grand English manor, complete with barns full of horses, including her beloved Rudi, and a dozen members of staff, Sasha's life seems perfect. But as she enters her sixteenth year, the image starts to crack, and the seemingly ideal life just might come crumbling down |

Customer Reviews

I loved this book and couldn't put it down. I am a horse owner and have bought and sold. I always wonder about what a horse has been through prior to my getting them. This book clearly described the past, present and future of a great horse. Any horse lover, weather they are into jumping or pleasure will love this book.

This is a must read for horse lovers. The love in the book will create incredible bonds with the characters and their beautiful horses. Filled with humor, passion, and love beyond compare, this is a must read for all horse lovers. ã ã ã•ã ã ã•ã ã ã•

This was a look into the wealthy horse owners who look at horses as objects rather than living beings. Fortunately, the story was saved by the owners children who saw the horses as living and feeling beings.

Seems like it was a trial book the author wrote and decided to publish anyway. There was no point to this story. Just rich brats who hate their dad and never see their mum and who eats loads and never get fat and are naturally good looking: guess it's the author's fantasy world.

Great read,

Loved this book - the witty dialogue between the characters was brilliant and the riding elements accurate and inspiring. Lots of drama and twists and turns. A fab read for horse lovers - and anyone else!

Very true to the life of high level jumpers
