Customer Reviews

4.5 StarsThe author noted at the end of this book she wants to know what book we want next.

LORD!!!! I do want Lucas's book too but since most of the book I wasn't sure if I liked him due to his blackmailing I can wait. I am sure though Ms. March can make me love him. You can read this as a standalone. I do recommend Beneath this Mask, I thought it was excellent. The story follows the same timeline as Charlie and Simon's story in BTM. They are very briefly mentioned in this book but nothing is given away, so it wouldn't spoil to read out of order. Vanessa and Con have basically been in lust with each other since high school. On a bad night for Vanessa she ends up in Con's bed. Con can't remember the details and Vanessa can't forget. Vanessa is the rich socialite and Con is the tattooed bad boy. Their worlds don't mesh so they stay away from each other. But Vanessa needs a piece of land that Con owns and has to go to him for help. Con and Vanessa were smoking hot! Con hates that he can't remember the one night they had. It eats at him that the girl he has wanted since high school he had once but can't remember. He is also mad at himself for wanting Van so he makes it hard for her to get what she wants. But he decides it might be his second chance, so he makes a deal with her. He wants her help with a project and if she follows through he will sign over the land. Con was 100% alpha male and as he put it, he had a huge chip on his shoulder. The closer he got to Vanessa and started listening to her instead of lashing out at her he changed. I wasn't sure I would like Vanessa but she was a tough cookie and she made me laugh a few times. She can knee a man in the balls and then tell him "I am a fucking lady" all while keeping her Grace Kelly cool. Final thoughts: I really enjoy Ms. March's writing. Her couples seem to grow and change together. As they fall in love they make each other better people and you can feel that in her writing. I liked the mystery thrown into the story, and was surprised at the bad guy in the end. I am looking forward to more in this series. And If you like a story with a huge tattooed up alpha male with piercings Con is your man.

We met Con (Constantine Leahy) in the first book, he was the womanizing playboy that Charlie worked for and had a history with. In this story we delve into his life and story. Con is an enigmatic man, one that is so much more than his surface shows. As an adopted boy to a couple that lived in the wealthy society of New Orleans, Con carried quite the chip on his shoulder in regards to the rest of the inhabitants of their community. All except one that he admired from afar, and denied his want for her, Vanessa Frost. Vanessa Frost was a daughter of privilege, and seemed to be isolated in a glass house from where Con stood. Until one night that he could not remember, and one that she would never forget. Circumstances lead Vanessa back to Con, searching for a favor. In exchange Con only wants one thing in return, he wants to resurrect that night and feast on the one thing he thinks he is not good enough to even want. This story leads us down a path of intrigue also, because Con is searching for answers. Ones that could ultimately make or break what develops into an undeniable love between Con & Vanessa. Vanessa is looking for the life she has not yet lived to the fullest and finds a hidden strength she didn't know she possessed until Con unlocked it. The two are awesome for the other and the story for me was un-put-downable (not a word I know....). I had to force myself at 2am to finally put it down. I loved the two characters just as much as Charlie & Simon. With this being the end of this HEA story, it leaves us with two other gentlemen that pique my interest. We meet Lucas Titan...he can only be labeled as the deceptive and manipulating self-made billionaire that uses Vanessa & Con's secret affair against Vanessa in return for his idea of a favor. Throughout the story he's an evil asshole that I immediately disliked and hate the position he put Vanessa in. But towards the end his colors changed and my interest in where his story leads (or began) are piqued also...and then there is Lord, he also is a vital part to their story, but if I go into depth about him it will give too much away. But can we say, "Yes My Lord"....If I had my choice and you've asked my opinion I'd say I want Lord's story next!!!!

This was just absolutely an amazing read. I've read a few other reviews now that I've finished it, and the lower reviews need to be ignored. This was outstanding. For once the characters showed growth. Yes I started thinking Vanessa was going to annoy the hell out of me, but she actually didn't, and I'm one of those readers who are pretty much sick of every female protagonist. She had her issues, and they were overcome pretty quickly. Like I stayed....the characters showed growth, and that's what I'm looking for if there are issues surrounding them. This book has all the elements needed to keep you reading. Good storyline. Fast paced plot. There's action, suspense, and sexy sexy sexy moments, and most importantly there is a clean cut shift in the characters once they get on the same page that has you rooting for them really early on in the read. I get sick of waiting around for one or the other to redeem themselves. As for the big SURPRISE, he's the bad guy.....whoa. didn't see that coming. Just read it. Now, who do I hope gets their story.....Lord, Lucas, Trey, and maybe even the good detective. I hate to see an end to this series when so many characters still have a story for them.
