The Desk Fairy

Synopsis

Late at night when you are tucked in bed real tight, something happens that is very cool. A special visitor comes to your schoolâ ¡tâ ™s the Desk Fairy! The Desk Fairy will encourage your kids to keep their desks clean, by teaching them that it is very rewarding and worthwhile to keep their things organized. This cute book was written by Psychologist Connie Schnoes and the colorful illustrations were done by her daughter, Paige Schnoes.

Connie Schnoes, Ph.D., is a clinical psychologist in Omaha, Nebraska.

I have used the desk fairy concept years ago when I taught grade 2. It is not a new idea but something many teachers have done in their classroom with great success. I am so happy to see it made into a book. It's just a perfect way to introduce the Fairy to your students. After explaining what you expect of a clean desk to your students tell them about The Desk Fairy and read them the new Children's book The Desk Fairy by Connie Schnoes. This book encourages your students to keep a tidy desk by introducing them to the Desk Fairy. I bet you can guess what her vey favorite thing in the whole wide world is???? Yep, CLEAN DESKS... She even leaves a surprise behind when she finds a clean desk. The book goes on to show the students what a clean desk might look like. The illustrations and the fun wording of the text make it easy for students to understand what a clean desk should look like. The book encourages the children to clean up their desk every night because you never know what night the desk fairy may choose to visit your classroom. The Desk Fairy book is such a fun way to introduce the concept of a clean desk to your classroom. Be sure to

The kids love the Desk Fairy and the book is a great way to introduce a teachers favorite trick!!!

This is a great one-of-a-kind book. Perfect for encouraging kids to keep up with their stuff and keep their desks neat. After reading, the desk fairy can come and leave behind glitter, treats, or any other treat. So cute!

Cute and effective

Great book! Second graders work hard to keep their desks clean!

The book is great, but I ordered two copies and one was printed exactly backwards. Poor Quality control. I would like to have had one replaced.

Love this

This book was great for encouraging my class to keep their desk clean. They look every day to see if she came last night while they were gone.
