A great all-around camping book with a bit of everything. I've been car camping the last few years and this book had some info I knew and more info that I didn't know or just hadn't thought of. It has inspired me to up my camp cooking game and camp farther from home. I would love to visit all the parks they have pictured.

This has great recipes and good information!

I love the collection of information they have put together in this book. It was a great read and lots of information for my upcoming camping trip.

Love this book! Great ideas and advice!

Grat to have this all in one place. Some of the information is very basic but that is the point. There are great tips here for everyone.

A great book for people starting out camping - lots of useful information.

great recipes
