good ideas!

Excellent book. A must for anyone interest in experiential worship services. This book examines every aspect including environment, aspects and content of worship.

Insightful and challenging. Whether you are a member of a praise band, a media volunteer, or the senior pastor - if you are involved in creating Sunday morning worship, Nancy Beach presents a strong question "Why do we do what we do on Sunday mornings?" And then with humor, real life illustrations and a lot of her own character and spirit, she helps us each to find the answer for ourselves. This book is a "must read" if you are involved in worship ministry. A pleasure to read, but so very challenging! Enjoy this one!

Great book that helps one be more intentional in presenting God's truth in ministry.

Such an insightful book, really helped my work as a creative director.

This book is the most intereactive and concise material I have ever read on the subject of worship arts. It was totally refreshing to see the artist/author use her skills to communicate what years of experience has showed her. Praise God, for encouraging us to operate under our spirital giftedness! Buy it! You won't be disappointed!

Great product with fast delivery

This was a practical book, yet full of moments of hopeful artistry for the soul. It also reveals honestly mistakes made with people, and inner struggles. It was better than I'd hoped for and I'm using it for our Worship Committee as we start on our journey towards trying to create moments of awe in church.
