Essential Elements 2000 for Strings Volume 1 Cello

5stars

I was introduced to this book when I took a Strings class at Santa Monica (junior) College. I wish I had had it when I was truly starting out. It provides a well-paced, painless way to learn 1) how to read bass clef, and 2) where the notes are on the cello. And then, voilÃ¡! You are playing the cello! I recommend this for anyone starting out, child (with help of course for young ones) to adult. (I am an adult student). Now it is not a huge book, but it will give you a respectable basic foundation. And I did say "very beginner".

I got this as I'm learning to play the cello at the young age of 60+. It was recommended by my teacher, who is a professional cellist. It goes slow enough that anyone can follow the lessons.

It is exactly what my instructor wanted me to get. It was shipped to me in record time and well packaged. I couldn't have gotten it from a music store for the price or speed which it came.

Great!!

Great for beginner.

My Grand Daughter Loves it!

Just what my daughter needed for class. Got here in time and was a little bit cheaper than the music store's mark up.
