Tampa Bay: A Photographic Portrait

Synopsis

DESCRIPTION: Robert La Follette's images of the cities and surrounding areas of Tampa, Clearwater, and St. Petersburg include the stunning coastline from Tarpon Springs to St. Petersburg Beach and along Hillsborough Bay to the fabulous Tampa skyline of period and contemporary architecture. Photos of Ybor City, historic parks, museums, and visual and performing arts venues accentuate the region's cultural influences, while the Lowery Park Zoo, public gardens, parks, extraordinary aquariums, and sanctuaries emphasize the importance of area wildlife. La Follette also captures the excitement of Tampa Bay's many entertainment and sports activities.

PHOTOGRAPHER: Since 1989, Robert La Follette has been working as a graphic designer and photographer. His photos have won numerous awards and have appeared in Shutterbug Magazine, Informant Guest, and Creation Magazine. LaFollette is also a contributing writer and photographer for Florida Wildlife Magazine. Robert was awarded "Best of Show" at the Boyd Hill Nature Photography Contest in St. Petersburg, Florida. He has been featured on "i On Tampa Bay" for PAX Television in Tampa. Robert's photography also appears around Tampa Bay, most notably with the Tampa Bay Convention and Visitors Bureau, where his images showcase the beauty and attractions that make Tampa Bay a world-renowned vacation destination. LaFollette teaches creative photography online and in numerous photography workshops around the United States and Canada. Robert lives in Tampa, Florida with his wife, Dawn, to whom he has been happily married for over 18 years. Wildlife enthusiasts, together they perform volunteer work with Tampa's Lowery Park Zoo and Clearwater Marine Aquarium.

Tampa Bay is a very nice photographic portrait of the Tampa Bay area. The quality of all the pictures were fantastic and I recommend this book to anyone who loves Tampa Bay or just wants to see how it looks like. The only concern I have with the book is if Lafollette could've taken even more photos of Tampa than Clearwater and St. Petersburg since Tampa is the main attraction of the area. I would have liked to have seen at least some more pictures of Busch Gardens and the Sunken Gardens in St. Petersburg. Other than those concerns, I was pretty much satisfied with the book!
