I'm not a fan of Osborne's manner of delivering info...she has unusual organization in which multiple secondary subjects string along an entire book, yet I prefer to compartmentalize info. She left out Togo another dog hero of the 1st Iditarod delivery of lifesaving serum. Wish we could have read a tiny bit about the Northern Lights, but nothing. The perspective on extreme sports was uncommon so we welcomed. Grammar in the book is standard and there are no glaring flaws. This was used for a 2nd graders non fiction book report; thankfully it kept his attention, he was able to read it aloud himself for background while we worked and he earned a good grade on his report.

I like this book, because my favorite animals are dogs, cheetahs, and ostriches. Dogsledding is harder than you think it is. Diana Nyad, a swimmer swam for almost fifty-four hours without stopping.

Love the well-researched information and how it's presented in these books.

My son, who is seven, loves this book. Challenging and informative.
