Customer Reviews

Grade 1-3 Accompanied by beautiful watercolor illustrations and photographs, this short and charming biography describes Obama's personal achievements as a student, civil-rights lawyer, executive, wife, and mother. Children will find her story inspiring as hard work and dedication are presented as the keys to her success. The importance of family is a major theme throughout, with the author describing how the First Lady strives to maintain a sense of normalcy for her daughters as she continues to champion her chosen causes. A good choice for most collections. Angelica G. Fortin, San Diego County Library, CA Copyright © Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. All rights reserved.
