This is a great arrangement for an intermediate student. Lovely introduction and a great sound. An easier arrangement is the Schaum easy piano version. A harder arrangement is the Pamela Schultz popular music made easy.

This is on cardstock type paper and is three pages. This arrangement is simplified, but easy enough for a beginner student still figuring out notes and two-handed playing. It will take lots of practice, but this level of 'easy piano' is just what I was looking for for my son, who is a beginner.

This song is fun to play. You do have to move your fingers a lot, but I do enjoy playing it.

I am a beginnig adult piano player and wanted something fun to play within my abilities (which unfortunately are not that advanced). With some concentrated effort I was able to follow the easy instructions and am now playing a ragtime song with only a handful of mistakes, which makes my husband happy as he has now been able to remove his earplugs.

This version was perfect! I am a beginner to intermediate piano player who hasn't played in years.

I found this piece to be easy to play, which is what I was looking for. I would consider myself to be at the late elementary/early intermediate level. Not too challenging, but sounds great!

Great piece for level 3 in Faber books student.
