Morton Bustard is the youngest child of a large family. Several of his siblings are also involved in full time ministry. Morton was born and raised in eastern Canada and has lived in the US for some fifteen years. For eighteen years Morton has ministered in the capacity of evangelist, holding crusades around the world. His ministry is best defined as operating in the prophetic, experiencing powerful demonstrations of the Holy Spirit. His preaching challenges churches to enter intimacy with God and seize every promise made available. Morton and his wife Marilyn live in Plano, TX with their two daughters, Datha and Kayla.

It is very encouraging book

It has been my pleasure several times to hear Morton Bustard preach. And I must say--this man practices what he preaches! His ministry is incredibly blessed; God uses him mightily. This book is a blessing both to the believer and to the unbeliever! Each chapter presents a single thought that the author then develops and expounds upon with authority--God-given authority. His knowledge and understanding of the Word of God astound me; his book introduced me to concepts and an understanding that I did not previously have. Thank you, Bro. Bustard for this book. It has blessed me and my walk with God tremendously!

I am a non-christian at this moment, and since reading this book I have entered the dimension that God has reserved for ME and I receive wonderful blessings every time. This has touched my soul. My favorite chapter is Snow - a loving tribute to a praying Mother. Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow
