Customer Reviews

My entire knowledge of Guyana was the vague recollection that was where Jim Jones, cult leader, resided when he instructed his entire following to swallow poisoned Kool-Aid. This lovely memoir gave me far greater insight into this country and a slice of it's history as seen through the eyes of a gentleman whose childhood was spent there. Mr. Kalli's story is simply told and the reader clearly senses the unspoken understanding and forgiveness he has come to as he reflects on the difficulties he faced and overcame as a child growing up in another time and place.
