The First Book of Mezzo-Soprano/Alto Solos: Book/CD package (2 CDs) (First Book of Solos) did not come with two cd's, there is a code to download the music in the book. This is very deceiving and the only reason I purchased was to have the cd. This will have to go back.

Two seperate orders and NO cd's included. Ridiculous! Don't list it as coming with cd's if it isn't going to.

I really love this book, and having the accompaniment CDs are terrific. However my discs are a huge freakin mess. The song titles DO NOT MATCH the music on the accompaniment CD!!! When I imported the songs, since the titles were all wrong, I had to try and figure out which song was actually playing, and then name it correctly. For example: The disc says track 13 should be "This Little Rose", but when I play track 13, it is a completely different song. I still don't know what's playing on track 13, but I found the correct audio for "This Little Rose" hiding on track 17- labeled under a completely different song title. The songs in this book are beautiful, and the accompaniments are great - but what in the world happened to mix up all the tracks and titles on the CDs?? I also agree with a previous reviewer that the tempos are sporadic on the CD.

No CD

The book was in good condition and I was able to buy it at an affordable price for class.

My book did not come with CDs, but instead came with audio codes. Why list this as a CD/Book combo if there are no CDs? I am very disappointed.

For those who are just starting out in the discipline of classical singing, this series of vocal books is great. It offers a variety of styles and ranges within each respective vocal class. This book, of course, is for mezzo-soprano / alto. I used it for my private vocal lessons for college and I found several suitable pieces that were beautiful and interesting and challenging.

This book was a good choice for my daughter who started voice lessons. The choice of songs in the book make for a nice repertoire. I would recommend this seller to friends.
