Synopsis

Every young child loves to look up at the moon in the night sky. Now here's a board book that can teach toddlers all about the sun, moon, stars, and planets—with colors, shapes, sizes, and super-simple facts. Hello, World! is a series designed to introduce first nonfiction concepts to babies and toddlers. Told in clear and easy terms and featuring bright, cheerful illustrations, Hello, World! makes learning fun for young children. And each page offers helpful prompts for engaging with your child. ("Can you point to the red planet? That's Mars!") It's a perfect way to bring science and nature into the busy world of a toddler, where learning never stops. Look for all the books in the Hello, World! series: Weather, Backyard Bugs, and Birds. A cheerful introduction to outer space. Booklist's "Supplemental tidbits ("Ouch! My son is telling everyone he meets that we live on planet earth after careful study of this beautiful book. He has also decided ladybugs should live on Venus (unrelated observation). The artwork is truly beautiful (I don't often think that even with the all of the praise heaped upon illustrations for children's books these days) and the facts presented are interesting without being overly complex. My 2 1/2 year old and I heartily recommend.

Bought this as part of a gift for a baby's first birthday. I read through the whole thing and learned something myself. That's saying a lot! Definitely recommend this book series, it's great for kids to start exploring their likes, even at such a small age. The book itself is hardcover, illustrated BEAUTIFULLY and I love the simple way it's written to explain complex concepts.

Beautifully illustrated and includes interesting facts for children! My three month old boy loves looking at this book, and we love reading it to him.

This is my 1yo daughter's favorite book! She loves to bright pictures and always points to the planets and says "wowwww". FUN! Buy this book : )

An easy to understand book for toddlers. It's not overwhelming with information and keeps their attention. After a couple of days of reading at bedtime, my 3 year old learned all the planets' names.

Great product! This book is different from other board books...Great!

I love this book! The illustrations are amazing!

Bought for a friend's baby, they love it!
