The Ponte Vecchio: The Old Bridge Of Florence

Synopsis

Ponte Vecchio means "Old Bridge" in Italian, and this world-famous Florentine landmark is certainly old, but it is by no means the first bridge to stand here. This book tells the amazing true story of a whole series of bridges that were built on, or close to the site occupied by the Ponte Vecchio today, bridges sometimes destroyed by the hand of man, and sometimes by truly apocalyptic natural forces. It is a dramatic story of murder, floods and war, and the fear of a curse from an ancient statue. This lavishly-illustrated eBook charts some 3,000 of history, and includes a 'star cast' of characters, from Julius Caesar, through Dante Alighieri, to the Medici, and also includes less-welcome appearances by Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini. It finishes by bringing the reader right up to the present day, and even takes a peek at the future. It is the perfect holiday reading to take with you when visiting Florence and Tuscany.

Customer Reviews

Having just spent a month in Florence I enjoyed learning about the history of the bridge. I also toured the Vasari Corridor which was a unique opportunity. Very enjoyable to read and lots of pictures.
