The War In Paraguay (Illustrated)

Synopsis

This book was written by an eyewitness of the War in Paraguay (1865-1870), the greatest conflict in Latin America. Mr. George Thompson was an English engineer hired by the Paraguayan government to build railroads that was drafted in the Paraguayan army during the war. Basically it is the Paraguayan point of view of the war. This edition is a full e-book edition with several typo corrections of the original work, and includes all original illustrations and footnotes.
